

Director • Early Childhood Collaborative of Southington Part-Time, 20 hours per week

The Early Childhood Collaborative of Southington (ECCS) is a town-wide group of community stakeholders committed to ensuring that all Southington children from birth to age eight will enter kindergarten “ready to learn.” We are seeking a passionate and entrepreneurial Director to advance the Community Plan for Southington’s Young Children through facilitative leadership and community partnerships. The Director will be a visionary and dynamic leader who: values partnerships and collective efforts, is a consummate communicator comfortable with varied audiences, and is comfortable managing the many facets of the ECCS. The Director will drive the Collaborative’s internal and external functions, including strategy development and implementation, communications, community engagement, fund development, and data functions.

Visit our website at www.southingtonearlychildhood.org for more information about the ECCS and to see a detailed job description including responsibilities and qualifications. Interested candidates should submit a cover letter and resume by May 25, 2016 to ECCSDirectorSearch@gmail.com
